

Know your varsity!

EducationUSA University Fair 2017

Profiles of the participating universities

Arcadia University, Pennsylvania

A top-ranked small private university in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania offering bachelors, masters, and doctoral degrees with international student from 25 countries. With a student-faculty ratio of 10:1 and an average class size of 16, students here learn in a tight-knit community that inspires and encourages interaction, collaboration, and discussion. Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students.

Arizona State University, Arizona

Arizona State University is ranked one of the best universities in the world. Students have the privilege of distinguished faculty, state-of-the-art facilities and a community of students from over 150 countries. Students can choose from more than 350 undergraduate and 400 graduate degree programs. ASU earned the No. 9 ranking among the country's top universities for graduate employability in 2016.

Merit and athletic scholarships are available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students.

Austin Peay State University, Tennessee

Located in the heart of historic downtown Clarksville, Tennessee, just 45 minutes from Nashville, known as Music City USA, Austin Peay State University's main campus strikes a balance between lush green spaces and state-of-the-art facilities, including one of the state's premier science education complexes, a fitness center and village-style student apartments. With over 10,000 students, Austin Peay State University has a variety of excellent academic programs at the undergraduate and graduate level. Students can choose from more than 50 academic majors and 90 concentrations of study and benefit from small class sizes.

Merit scholarships are available to international undergraduate and graduate students. Athletic scholarships are available to international undergraduate students. Accepts 3 year bachelor's degree.

Aviation Institute of Maintenance (AIM) and Centura College, Virginia

Aviation Institute of Maintenance (AIM) is the world's largest education provider of Aviation Maintenance Technicians (AMT) . Their campuses are located at Atlanta, Dallas, Houston, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Las Vegas, Oakland, Orlando, Philadelphia, Virginia Beach and Washington, DC. Graduates earn their coveted Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) license in 91 weeks, just over three academic years. Additional aviation courses are available to include turbine helicopter and avionics and students can also earn their Associates' degree in Aviation Maintenance Management after the completion of all FAA mandated curriculum. Centura College offers certificate, associate and bachelor's degree programs in business and allied health. Some of the major concentrations offered are Management, Allied Health, Accounting, Hospitality, Human Resources and Marketing.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships are available to international undergraduate and graduate students. Athletic scholarships are available to international undergraduate students. Accepts a 3-Year bachelor's degree.

Berkeley College, New York

For over 85 years, thousands of international students have chosen Berkeley College to prepare for career success. Students receive an excellent education that balances academic preparation, professional training, work experience and the latest in technology. With eight locations in the New York metropolitan area, Berkeley College offers a choice of studying either in a suburban setting or in a major international city. The Berkeley On-line option offers students an opportunity to pursue many of their programs online. Students may choose to complete the entire degree without leaving their home or may complete part of the degree in their country.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree for their MBA program.

Binghamton University - State University of New York (SUNY), New York

Offering more than 60 master's programs and 30 doctoral degrees, Binghamton University, a nationally distinguished State University of New York (SUNY) Center of Excellence, combines the atmosphere of a mid-sized public institution with the resources of a large research university. With more than 2,500 international students from 122 different countries, Binghamton University is rich with different cultures and perspectives. Binghamton has won eight U.S. national awards for internationalizing the campus and its coursework.

Merit scholarships, need-based financial aid and athletic scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships and need-based financial aid available for international graduate students.

Bradley University, Illinois

Bradley University is a top-ranked private university in Peoria, Illinois, that offers 5,400 undergraduate and graduate students opportunities and resources of a larger university and the personal attention and exceptional learning experience of a smaller university. It offers more than 185 undergraduate and graduate academic programs. Bradley is within three hours driving distance from Chicago, St. Louis and Indianapolis, and is also accessible by air. Publications like U.S. News & World Report, the Princeton Review, Wall Street Journal and Bloomberg Business week recognize Bradley University for its academic rigor, value and student engagement.

Merit, need-based financial aid and athletic scholarships are available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships and need-based financial aid are available for international graduate students.

California State University, Bakersfield, California

CSU Bakersfield, part of The California State University system, is dedicated to student success, with world-class faculty that gets to know their students and provide personalized guidance and support. The university offers more than 50 Bachelor's and Master's degree programs. CSUB has all of the benefits of a private university — like small class sizes, cutting-edge research, and outstanding faculty — at a public school cost. With an extraordinary level of student-faculty interaction students will work closely with highly qualified and experienced professors in modern classroom and laboratory settings.

City University of Seattle, Washington

CityU's accessible downtown Seattle location gives students ample opportunities to find internships and network with companies. Seattle is home to many global corporations, including Microsoft, Amazon, Starbucks and Boeing. Seattle is annually rated a best place to live due to its natural beauty, vibrant art and music scene, and career opportunities. CityU's programs are popular with students worldwide for their practical curriculum and experienced teaching staff, who have worked for some of the world's largest and most successful companies. City University of Seattle is one of the top three MBA producing schools in Washington State. CityU has a robust international community, as 600 of the 6,100 students are international students. GRE, GMAT, or SAT scores are NOT required for admission. International student merit scholarships of $2,000 - $5,000 are available. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree.

Colorado State University, Colorado

A top research university, located at the base of the Rocky Mountains in Fort Collins, offering more than 150 programs of study. Academic programs at CSU are among the best in quality, innovation and achievement, with internationally known programs in infectious disease, agriculture, cancer research, atmospheric science, sustainability, clean energy, and much more. With more than 2,000 international students from 110 countries, CSU is consistently recognized for providing a quality education to students with a focus on academic success, cultural and social support, and a welcoming and safe community.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students.

Drexel University, Pennsylvania

Drexel provides comprehensive graduate-level education with a focus on application through research and practical experience. Drexel boasts of more than 120 years of history, state-of-the-art facilities, career advising, and support services. Students get to network through faculty and the 9,000 other graduate students enrolled. Located in Philadelphia, Drexel places its students in the center of an international landmark rich in history, culture, and commerce and in close proximity to New York, Boston, and Washington, D.C. In addition to the Graduate Co-op option available in some programs, most programs offer extensive research options and hands-on clinical experience. Drexel offers over 100 master's programs, more than 40 doctoral programs, a doctor of medicine, a juris doctor, and over 45 graduate-level certificate programs in an array of disciplines.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree.

East Coast Polytechnic Institute, Virginia

ECPI University offers programs that are designed to prepare students for the global job market. MS in Information Systems, MS in Cyber security, BS in Computer and Information Science, BS in Business Administration, BS in Electronics Engineering Technology, BS in Mechanical Engineering Technology, BS in Health Science are some of their programs that are in-demand. New classes begin every five weeks. Students can earn a bachelor's degree in just 2.5 years and a master's degree in just 15 months through ECPI's year-round schedule. Multiple Scholarships are available to international students. The university is conveniently located 30 miles from Washington DC.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students.

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Florida, Arizona, Singapore

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University is the world's oldest and largest university specializing in aviation and aerospace.. Some of the most popular programs are Engineering, Aeronautics, Pilot/Flight Training and Aviation Business. Students can choose to study Applied Sciences, Aviation, Business, Computers & Technology, Engineering, Security, Intelligence and Safety and Space Operations. The university has campuses in Florida and Arizona in the US and also in Singapore. Merit scholarships are available to international students who show strong academic potential. More than 93% of Embry-Riddle graduates are employed or are in graduate school within a year of graduation. The university offers more than 80 degree programs and has over 125,000 alumni all over the world. 6 of their graduates are astronauts at NASA.

Merit and athletic scholarships are available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students. Accepts a 3-year Bachelor's Degree ONLY for MBA in Aviation program offered full-time.

Foothill + De-Anza College, California

Located near San Francisco, Foothill and De Anza are top ranked community colleges. After studying for two years, students transfer into the third year at prestigious universities, earning Bachelor's degrees at much lower cost and with individualized support. Foothill + De-Anza Colleges are a part of the same system as the University of California and California State Universities. Their students are regularly accepted to and earn degrees from UCLA, UC Berkeley, USC, Stanford, MIT, Columbia, Yale, Indiana, and more!

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students.

Full Sail University, Florida

Full Sail University in Orlando, FL has built a reputation as a premier art, music, and film school dedicated to helping creative students follow their dreams in the entertainment and media industry. If you are passionate about music, live concerts, video games, art and design, animation, film making, web development or the business behind entertainment, an education at Full Sail University can help you take that next big step. Full Sail offers Master's, Bachelor's, and Associate's Degrees with both campus and online options. In addition, Full Sail offers an intensive ESL program geared towards media and entertainment. Their international student community is comprised of students from more than 49 countries.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students. Accepts a 3-year bachelor's degree with WES or any other external evaluation.

George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

The George Washington University was created in 1821 through an Act of Congress, fulfilling George Washington's vision of an institution in the nation's capital dedicated to educating and preparing future leaders. Today, GW is the largest institution of higher education in Washington, DC. The university has more than 26,000 students along with a diverse mix of international students from 130 countries. George Washington University offers programs from a rich range of disciplines: from forensic science and creative writing to international affairs and computer engineering, as well as medicine, public health, the law and public policy.

Merit and athletic scholarships are available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students.

Iowa State University, Iowa

Thousands of miles away your adventure began and once you arrive at Iowa State it won't stop. Iowa State is a university filled with opportunity, cutting-edge research, state-of-the-art technology, world-class facilities, and internationally renowned faculty. Enrolls over 4,000 international students from more than 100 countries. Customize your adventure by choosing from more than 100 majors and over 800 student clubs and organizations. Iowa State has a galaxy of opportunities and gives you the freedom to explore and make your college adventure unique. Invigorate your life. Broaden your mind. Discover your passion. Enjoy the adventure.

Merit scholarships are available to international undergraduate and graduate students. Athletic scholarships are available to international undergraduate students

Kettering University, Michigan

Kettering University prepares students for lives of extraordinary leadership and service by linking transformative experiential learning opportunities to rigorous academic programs in engineering, science, mathematics, and business. It offers 14 undergraduate and 11 graduate programs including 3 fully online degrees. Out of their 12 academic departments there are more than 120 full-time faculty who specialize in fields from cancer research to renewable energy to fuel cells to entrepreneurship. Since 2010, Kettering's faculty have received eight Major Research Instrumentation (MRI) grants from the National Science Foundation.

Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students. Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students

Marist College, New York

Marist is a private, four year liberal arts university located in New York with direct access to New York City. The university is consistently ranked high by U.S. News & World Report and the Princeton Review; more recently in Princeton Review's, "Colleges That Create Futures: 50 Schools That Launch Careers by Going Beyond the Classroom". The college offers over 40 bachelor degrees and 12 graduate programs. Marist provides students with the power of a global university with the personal touch of a leading liberal arts college.

Merit scholarships, Need-based financial aid, and Athletic scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students. Accepts a 3-year bachelor's degree with WES evaluation.

Middle Tennessee State University, Tennessee

Middle Tennessee State University offers a vast array of academic offerings, with more than 100 programs of study. From short-term-study certificate programs to doctoral degrees, MTSU has something for almost everyone. Niche programs in recording arts and technologies, aviation administration, and public history attract top scholars from around the world. MTSU constantly seeks to strengthen the global and international dimensions of teaching, learning, research and service.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students

National University San Diego, California

Founded in 1971, National University is one of the largest private, nonprofit institutions of higher education in California and among the largest in the United States. Located in Southern California with campuses in Los Angeles and San Diego, National University is known for a unique one-course-per-month format. With rolling admissions and classes in session all year long, students have the ability to complete a bachelor's or master's program faster than at a traditional school which saves both time and money. Average class size of 17 students per instructor, creates a warm and interactive learning environment. Scholarships are also available for both new and current students.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree.

New York Institute of Technology, New York

New York Institute of Technology (NYIT) offers 90 degree programs, including undergraduate, graduate, and professional degrees, in more than 50 fields of study, including architecture and design; arts and sciences; education; engineering and computing sciences; health professions; management; and medicine. With more than 10,000 students worldwide, New York Institute of Technology is a dynamic, highly ranked, and accredited not-for-profit university committed to educating the next generation of leaders. International students come from over 100 countries at campuses around the world and become engaged, technologically savvy physicians, architects, scientists, engineers, business leaders, digital artists, health care professionals, and more.

Merit and athletic scholarships are available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships are available for international graduate students. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree with a conditional CS bridge program.

New York University, Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development, New York

The Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development, one of the largest graduate schools at New York University, offers one-of-a-kind integration of education, communication, applied psychology, health, and the arts, putting them at the heart of a movement: education for social change. For over 125 years, the School has been connecting theory to practice, building communities within and beyond their classrooms, and nurturing the human spirit. Their faculty members are intellectually adventurous and socially conscious. Their students study in the expansive environment of a great research university, and use the urban neighborhoods of New York City, the surrounding areas, and countries around the world as their laboratories. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree with a WES evaluation.

Northern Kentucky University Chase College of Law, Kentucky

Since 1893, NKU Chase College of Law has educated individuals who make immediate contributions to the legal profession and to their communities. With a collegial, student-centered environment in full-time and part-time programs, Chase provides an intellectually rigorous education in legal theory and professional skills; offers practical training through its curricular offerings, co-curricular programs, and specialized centers; and instills the ideals of ethics, leadership, and public engagement.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students

NYU School of Professional Studies, New York

For more than eight decades, the NYU School of Professional Studies has provided comprehensive, professionally oriented educational experiences to students around the globe. Ongoing connection to the financial, civic, and cultural facets of New York City is what makes learning here a unique experience. Classroom learning experiences are supplemented by field trips and networking events that incorporate the City's diverse resources. The School's students join a learning community that is truly "In and of the City. The school offers both graduate and undergraduate programs of study, along with career advancement courses and diploma programs that accounts for a high-caliber program curriculum that is professionally relevant and that is taught by top industry experts.

Ohio Wesleyan University, Ohio

Ohio Wesleyan University is one of the nation's premier small, private universities with nearly 90 undergraduate majors and 23 NCAA Division III varsity sports. Ohio Wesleyan is featured in the book "Colleges That Change Lives" and is included on the "Best Colleges" lists of U.S. News & World Report and The Princeton Review. The curriculum combines big university style programs in business management and the sciences with diverse and exciting academic offerings reminiscent of a small liberal arts college. Experiential learning is a key component to an OWU education and the University provides internships, research, and study away opportunities. OWU is partnered with Carnegie Mellon University for Graduate level degree programs and 98% of graduates meet with success just 6 months from graduation.

Merit and need based scholarships are available to international undergraduate students.

Rochester Institute of Technology, New York

RIT offers 70 graduate programs in Art, Design, Crafts, Photography, Animation, Business, Communications, Service and Hospitality; Education, Psychology, and Human Resources; Science, Health Sciences, Mathematics, Statistics and Imaging Science; Applied Arts & Sciences; Sustainability; Computing and Information Sciences; and Engineering and Technology. Degrees offered include M. Arch., MBA, MFA, MS, MST, ME and Ph.D. Diverse University with students from more than 110 countries. $17 million in scholarships and graduate assistantships was awarded to graduate students last year. 95% graduate students get jobs or pursue additional degrees. Career fairs draw 400+ employers and thousands of students are interviewed on campus annually. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree.

Suffolk University, Massachusetts

Since its founding in 1906, Suffolk University has made a commitment to provide its students with unparalleled experiences and opportunities. Located right in the heart of downtown Boston, Suffolk University gives its students incredible access to a wealth of opportunities, whether it's museums and restaurants or internships and co-ops. Suffolk takes pride in being a personal, student-centered school, where faculty and administrators know students by name. Study at Suffolk is enriched by its supportive network of faculty, staff, and classmates ready to help students succeed by charting the course of a student's education with a wide variety of traditional classes supplemented by real-world experiences to research projects, study abroad, internships, and more.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree with above average GRE/GMAT scores and at least 1 year of working experience for their business programs. However their Master of Science in Accounting does not accept a 3 year degree.

The Association of Boarding Schools (TABS), North Carolina

Studying at a U.S. boarding school is the perfect stepping stone to a U.S. college or university. Boarding school offers an extraordinary academic experience filled with more adventure, challenge, fun, diversity, acceptance, and community. From a range of unique activities, students get a chance to try something different all the time. From arts to athletics to off-campus explorations, it's easy for students to pursue their interests and discover new ones. The boarding experience will make a student's transition to college or university so much easier. The Association of Boarding Schools serves approximately 250 college-preparatory boarding schools. TABS is the voice for independent boarding schools, their historical contribution to our world, and the current and compelling benefits of living and learning in an academic community.

Scholarships available for international students.

Troy University, Alabama

Troy University is a public international university located in the warm southeastern part of the U.S. Located within easy drive to Florida and the city of Atlanta, Troy offers more than 100 quality academic programs with career minded learning at the center. The Chronical of Higher Education rated Troy's beautiful park-like campus as one of the safest in the U.S.. At Troy students will find a rich heritage of friendly hospitality and family-like environment where faculty and advisors both take a personal interest in the success of each of their students.

Merit, need-based financial aid, and athletic scholarships are available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships are available for international graduate students. Accepts a 3 year bachelor's degree.

University of South Florida, Florida

The University of South Florida, with its main campus in Tampa, Florida, is a high impact global research university dedicated to student success and excellence. Spread across 1600 acres, USF Tampa has 14 colleges offering more than 180 undergraduate, graduate and PhD programs – many of which are ranked among the best according to the 2017 U.S. News and World Report Graduate School Rankings. USF's 50,000 students come from 130 countries, including India. Researchers at the university are advancing the frontiers of medicine, science, engineering and the arts. The university is a leader in the treatment of brain disease, sustainability, infectious disease and photovoltaic technologies – using cells to transfer energy from sunlight. The USF Pediatric Epidemiology Center, the data and technology coordinating hub for nearly every major Type 1 diabetes clinical trial worldwide, has become the epicenter for global juvenile diabetes research.

Merit scholarships available for international undergraduate students. Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students.

University of Southern California - Viterbi Graduate School of Engineering, California

The USC Viterbi School of Engineering has an international reputation for excellence. With graduate students pursuing degrees in over 60 fields, the School is ranked as one of the top institutions for graduate engineering and computer science programs by U.S. News & World Report. With more than 5600 Graduate and 2700 undergraduate students, USC Viterbi has a vibrant community of international students from around the world. The Viterbi Student Engagement & Career Connections Office (SECC) offers career-focused support to prepare you for internships, co-ops and full-time employment. We host a variety of technical companies throughout the year with job openings to fill.

Merit scholarships/assistantships available for international graduate students

University of Utah- David Eccles School of Business, Utah

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce recently ranked Utah No.1 in high-tech job growth .It has become a magnet for entrepreneurial start-ups. University of Utah's campus includes the world's first on-campus space for residential living, co-working, startup launching and product fabrication – open 24/7 to all University students. The David Eccles School of Business offers a unique experiential learning environment for students. They house seven institutes and centers that deliver academic research and support an ecosystem of entrepreneurship, technology and innovation. Two notable one year master's programs include MS in Information Systems (MSIS) and MS in Business Analytics (MSBA). Both are STEM designated, and with the high-demand for technical skills in Salt Lake City, job opportunities are abundant. The MSIS program offers students advanced graduate specializations in a variety of today's hottest IT fields, including Business Intelligence and Analytics, Software and Systems Architecture, Product and Process Management and IT Security. Each concentration offers Eccles School students a unique competitive advantage that will prepare them for high-level leadership positions in major corporations. The MSBA program is designed to provide students with the skills necessary to compete in the rapidly growing market for analytics and data science professionals. The program offers a unique blend of curriculum in both the technical and managerial space. Students exit the program ready to successfully compete in the world of "big data."

Merit and need based scholarships are available to international undergraduate and graduate students